AVSI, a non-profit organization founded in 1972, implements development and humanitarian aid projects in 33 countries, including Italy. Our vision: to work for a world where the person is the protagonist of her own integral development and that of her community, even in crisis and emergency contexts. In 2019, AVSI helped more than 5 million people in need, including 23,872 children through our distance support program.

On its last financial statement (2019), AVSI had annual expenditure of 80,475,535.82 Euro, of which 77% came from institutional donors and 23% from private individuals. For every Euro received, 89.97 cents are used to implement projects. Moreover, AVSI is an institution authorized by the Commission for International Adoptions of the Italian Government.

AVSI contributes to the Sustainable Development Goals of the United Nations’ 2030 Agenda and operates in both humanitarian and development areas.

AVSI’s activities favor a multisectoral approach with particular emphasis on cross-sector themes. For example, 74% of projects supported people involved in the migration phenomenon, 71.6% of projects have gender equality and women’s empowerment among their priority policies and 37.1% of projects have included private sector businesses. Digitalization is a crucial component in most of our projects, in terms of both monitoring and implementation.
